

What's New in Version 3.0

- GUI of the entire application has been modified to incorporate more professional outlook.
- All the modules and the sub modules have been represented with meaningful iconic views
- Home Page section has been introduced where user will find all the common and personalized modules with their iconic view for easy navigation.
- Addition of a new member has been implemented through wizard view.
- “Member Information” module is incorporated to view all the particular details of all the enlisted members. User can also edit the particulars of a selected member and delete members.
- Introduction of Preference area to set user defined preferences with respect to different units, date and password settings. System will accept the user defined setting as its default setting.
- Introduction of “Change Password” sub module. You can change the previously set User Id and Password.
- Graphical representation of various health record data has been incorporated.
- In the Pregnancy module a sub module, called “1st Assessment” has been incorporated to hold all the initial details of the pregnant lady, enlisted in this application.
- Creates User defined alarm time for appointment and prescription refill.
- In the Fitness module, “Diet Plan” has been incorporated.
- Tool bar menu has been incorporated in all the modules.
- On device “Help” system incorporated.

Version 2.0

- Setting User Id and Password section added.
- Vital Signs section has been added to the Health module.
- Implementation of a notification that will be shown to the user, when personal recorded value of BP of the selected member will cross its trigger values.
- Today Screen with the list of the enlisted members along with their alerts.
- Administration module to add, delete, edit and setting the module access permission of members.
- Creates and manages the alarms for Appointment, Medication and Prescription refills.
- The database of the application can be loaded either from resident memory or from SD card.
- Backup of the entire application/database can be done in the SD card.
- Implementation of the child growth chart.
- Shows the location of the enlisted Physician, Pharmacy and Hospital with valid address information, through map.

Version 1.0

- Implementation of different modules (Health, Notification, Allergy, Vision, Fitness and Pregnancy), having the capacity of holding different health record.
- Setting notification with respect to different Appointments.
- Implementation of Calorie information and BMI.
- Implementation of the Demographics module.